ORDER:-

There are large number of Corporations that were created by various Departments. There are basically 2 types of Corporations in the State – Commercial & Welfare. However, in both types of Corporations, there is a need for feedback about its functioning from time to time. Also, it is important that these Corporations expand their activities and functions to all districts of the State to ensure equitable distribution.

2. After careful consideration, Government have decided to appoint additional 13 Directors (i.e., 1 from each District) in all the Corporations in the State for achieving above stated objectives.

3. In view of the above, all the Corporations in the State are hereby directed to take necessary follow-up actions for appointment of additional 13 Directors (i.e., 1 from each District) in accordance with Law.

(BY ORDER AND IN THE NAME OF THE GOVERNOR OF ANDHRA PRADESH)
